Gosh, howdy there, kids! It looks like that old rascal Phineas T. Bluster has been causing trouble again! Out of pure ornery meanness, he's knocked letters right off our church sign—what a mess! Clarabell and Dilly Dally are busy practicing their voices, so we sure could use your help! Now, don't you worry—those letters just fell straight down, they're just all mixed up in their columns. Why don't you start with the columns that only have one letter fallen, then work your way up to the two- and three-letter words. Try out different combinations and see what good words you can make! And when you've got it all figured out, be sure Buffalo Bob sends a message to your church maintenance folks. Thanks a bunch, and happy puzzling!
