

Don't Forget to Remember Cryptogram Puzzle

This coded message was found in a time capsule buried under the County Courthouse in Redobar, TX. It is written in an old time "pigpen cypher" used by frontier organizations. It was found in a very early edition Bible, so we believe it has significant meaning to Christians today. Our decryption team is occupied with middle school graduation this coming week, so we need your help. Use the key provided, it should work. Note the "Hello World" example.
