

Why did Zacchaeus climb the sycamore tree?

Because standing on his tiptoes wasn't getting him any closer to Jesus!

What was Zacchaeus's favorite subject in school?

Tree-gonometry.

Why didn't Zacchaeus mind being short?

Because when Jesus called his name, he was already above the crowd.

A friend asked Zacchaeus, "How was your day?"

Zacchaeus replied, "I went out to see Jesus and ended up hosting dinner. Talk about an unexpected guest list!"

Why was Zacchaeus terrible at hide-and-seek?

Because once you're sitting in a tree wearing tax collector robes, everybody spots you.

And one that ties into the lesson's theme of grace:

What did Zacchaeus say after meeting Jesus?

"I climbed a tree to get a better look at Him, but it turns out He already had His eye on me."

Why did Zacchaeus climb a sycamore tree?

Because the "standing-room-only" section was already full.

What was the biggest surprise in Luke 19?

Zacchaeus thought he was looking for Jesus, but Jesus was looking for Zacchaeus.

Zacchaeus Jokes

Luke 19

A friend asked Zacchaeus, "How did you get Jesus to come to your house?"

Zacchaeus replied, "I got a little elevation and a whole lot of grace."

Why was Zacchaeus good at climbing trees?

Years of collecting taxes had prepared him to deal with hostile crowds.

And a groaner worthy of a church fellowship hall:

What kind of tree did Zacchaeus climb?

A sycamore tree.

Why not a sycamore-less tree?

Because he needed a little more height! 😄
