Well, hello! Humph! So you think you know the book of John? We'll just see. Let's start with some words from John 1:1-18 from the NIV. That other class says they can find more of them than you can. Don't tell them about the online solution. Humph! Oh yes, the words left to right, top down, North-East and South-East. So, no backwards. Have this done Toot-Sweet, else it's a book report due next week.
