Ohhh! Oh, my! This is most distressing! A rogue fighter from the Dagobah system has somehow managed to penetrate our defenses and attack your neighborhood church sign! Good heavens! His ion blaster has knocked down more than half the letters! And they've fallen straight down, but in absolutely no sensible order! Oh, dear, oh, dear! The pastor is depending on us! I suggest we begin with the single-letter columns, then proceed to the shorter words, trying combinations that might form perfectly reasonable words. Oh, I do hope you can manage it! I'm only a protocol droid, you know, not a sign-repair specialist!
