Finally the other disciple [John], who had reached the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed. (They still did not understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead.) Then the disciples went back to their homes, but Mary stood outside the tomb crying. … At this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realize that it was Jesus. "Woman," he said, "why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?" Thinking he was the gardener, she said, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will get him." Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned toward him and cried out in Aramaic, "Rabboni!" (which means Teacher).

Discussion

- Why do you think John “saw and believed”, even though they didn’t fully understand from Scripture that Jesus must rise from the dead?
- Why did Mary stay at the tomb after Peter and John left? What does this show about her devotion to Jesus?
- Mary recognized Jesus when He spoke her name. How does Jesus call us today, and how can we recognize His voice?
- What fears or doubts might keep us from fully believing in the power of Jesus' resurrection? How can we overcome them?
