

1

As the boys grew up, Esau became a skillful hunter. He was an outdoorsman, but Jacob had a quiet temperament, preferring to stay at home. Isaac loved Esau because he enjoyed eating the wild game Esau brought home, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

Genesis 25:27-28 (NLT2)

2

Discuss

- What are some ways the people in your family are different from each other in skills or interests?
- Why is it a good thing that people in the same family often unique in their abilities?
- How can we show appreciation for and encourage distinctive interests within our family?
- Read Romans 12:6 – 8 and talk about how one’s skills and interests can be used by God as spiritual gifts.

3

Pray

- Thank God for the diversity of skills and abilities in your family.
- Ask God to help you develop your abilities and use them for His purposes.
- Pray that each person in your family will be encouraged by the diversity of interests and skills God has given.
- Pray that God will bless those in your church who have recognizable spiritual gifts and make them a blessing to others.

4