Group Participation Story

In Jewish culture as a part of the annual celebration of Purim, someone reads the story of Esther with audience participation. Read or tell the story of Esther to your family. A kid friendly version of the story is found at <https://joyfuljewish.wordpress.com/2011/03/08/the-purim-story-for-small-children/>

Instruct family members to do the following when they hear the names of the key characters:

- Esther—cheer; blow party blowers

- Mordecai—cheer; say, "Bless Mordecai."

- Haman—boo, hiss; say, "Curse Haman."
