Mark 1:16-18 (NIV)

As Jesus walked beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. "Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of men." At once they left their nets and followed him.

Discuss

- After the event of the miraculous catch of fish, Jesus challenged the disciples to leave their nets and follow Him. Why would the decision to leave their jobs as fishermen be difficult to do?
- How did the disciples' decision to follow Jesus impact their families, friends, and community?
- What might be the broader community implications of individuals choosing to follow Jesus today?

Pray

- Thank the Lord for your pastor and Bible study teachers. They have given up other pursuits to minister to you.
- Ask God to show you what things you might need to abandon, in order to be a fisher of men.
- Pray that God will call young people today to serve Him full time as missionaries and pastors.
