- If you could interview one of the shepherds, what questions would you want to ask?
- Why do you think the shepherds were afraid?
- What other emotions do you think you would have experienced if you had been with the shepherds that night?
- The angels brought “Good News.” How is their message Good News, even to us today?

And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord.

Luke 2:8-11 (NIV)

Pray

- Thank the Lord for the Good News that the angels brought, the birth of our Savior.
- Ask God to help you to be faithful in being involved with spreading that Good News.
- Pray for people who have yet to hear the Good News of salvation in Christ.
- Pray for those who are taking that Good News around the world.
