"Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? And how can they preach unless they are sent?

Rom. 10:13 – 15 (NIV)

Discuss

- Rewrite the verses as IF ... THEN statements.
- What prayers for Christian missionary activity do these statements imply?
- The last part of verse 15 says, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news." Why would that be true?

Pray

- Find out what missionaries your church supports and pray for them.
 - Their health and safety
 - Opportunities to communicate the Gospel
- Pray for people who have yet to hear of Jesus.
- Pray that young people will say “yes” to God’s call to serve wherever He sends them.
