Exodus 3:4-5 (NLT2)

When the LORD saw Moses coming to take a closer look, God called to him from the middle of the bush, "Moses! Moses!" "Here I am!" Moses replied. "Do not come any closer," the LORD warned. "Take off your sandals, for you are standing on holy ground."

Discuss

- We don't take our shoes off when we enter a church service, but what things could we set aside so we can focus on God?
- God wants our whole attention. From what activities can we refrain as we enter God's presence?
- Moses audibly heard God speak. How can we anticipate hearing from God as we sing His praises and listen to preaching and teaching?

Prayer

- Talk to God and tell Him about your awe for His beautiful creation and the power displayed by the working of nature.
- Ask God to give you understanding as you read His messages to you in the Bible.
- Pray that you will learn to practice the presence of God both in worship services and in your daily activities.
- Thank the Lord that He is in control of world events.
