

The Nature of Sin

Family Discussion

1

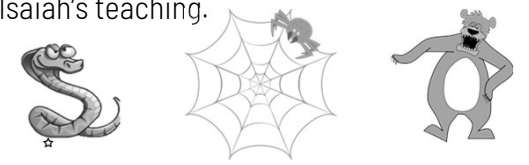

Your lips have spoken falsely, and your tongue mutters wicked things. ... they conceive trouble and give birth to evil. They hatch the eggs of vipers and spin a spider's web. Whoever eats their eggs will die, and when one is broken, an adder is hatched. ... Their cobwebs are useless for clothing; they cannot cover themselves with what they make. ... Like the blind we grope along the wall, feeling our way like people without eyes. ... We all growl like bears; we moan mournfully like doves. We look for justice, but find none; for deliverance, but it is far away.
