The Protection of God's Name Double Puzzle

Our Air Force attaché at the embassy of Puertankibon received the two halves of the message from Spiros the Spy who is there on special assignment. As our resident decoding team is involved in a Middle School early basketball tournament, we need your help. The key words on the left are from Psalm 91. Unscramble them so they give you the letters to match the numbers in the main body of this important message.
