Protecting the Vulnerable

Pharaoh declared all Hebrew male babies should be drowned in the Nile. Moses' mother, Jochebed, hid him in their home when he was born. Then she made a boat basket and hid him in the reeds along the river. Pharaoh's daughter came to the river to bathe, and they found the baby. Moses' sister, Miriam, was watching nearby and offered to find a Hebrew woman (their mother) to care for the baby. Pharaoh's daughter adopted Moses, and he was rescued from being killed by drowning.

Summarized from Exodus 1:22, 2:2 - 10

- How can we take actions to protect those who are vulnerable or marginalized in today's society, +as Jochebed and Miriam did for Moses?
