Well, I'm back. So sorry to interrupt your plans. Humph ... not really! You've got words to find. Actually I'm well meaning. You need to think about the words to this story. You can find these words left to right, top to bottom, and diagonally (both "south-east" and "north-east") That other class has challenged you. They claim they will find more words. But you're not allowed to search during the sermon.
