"Mon ami, the Baptist consulate in Kirat Guaybar has received, by two most curious and separate deliveries, the fragments of a secret message. It appears that our friends in the underground church wish for you to remember a truth of great importance. Alas! The decryption team, they are taking the holiday—what you call the middle school fall break. And so, it is to you that we turn for the little grey cells! Use the key, place each letter in its proper position—order and method, always! When you have uncovered the full message, be so good as to forward it to your youth pastor, n'est-ce pas?"
