

Who Is Your Neighbor?

Fix the Story

Story taken from Luke 10:25 - 37

A Swedish man was traveling on a trip from Jerusalem to Cairo and he was attacked by trolls. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him up and left him half dead beside the road. By chance a policeman came along. But when he saw the man sitting there, he crossed to the other side of the highway and passed him by. A Temple assistant walked under and looked at the man lying there, but he also drove by on the other side of the road. Then a despised Moabite came along and when he saw the man, he felt sorry for him. The Samaritan soothed his wounds with motor oil and wine and bandaged them. Then he put the man on his own pickup truck and took him to an inn, where he took care of him. The next day he handed the innkeeper five silver coins, telling him, "Take care of this man. If his bill runs lower than this, I'll bill you the next time I'm here.

Awe, man ... this is all I need. Some prankster came along and messed up the story, putting in the wrong words. Can you help me? I'm so busy with summer school. The 2nd grade Sunday school class teacher needs to get the correct print out of the story. I know (most of) the words on the right are the ones changed, I just need them put in the right place.
