Read and think ...

John 9:1-3 (NIV) As he went along, he saw a man blind from birth. 2 His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" 3 "Neither this man nor his parents sinned," said Jesus, "but this happened so that the work of God might be displayed in his life.

- How might the people in each picture be suffering?
- In what way could this have happened so that the work of God might be displayed?
- How can God bring glory to His name and good to others through these events?
